About Roads To Himalayas

A concept of self drive road trip expedition started in 2020 in India, Roads To Himalayas (RTH) is one of the most trending Road Trip season of the country invented by Roy Cruiser.

Roy cruiser has successfully executed 12 different seasons of RTH in last 5 years.

With a vision to explore different culture and diversity of India,
We aim to explore different states in a single road trip.

Starting from Namma Bengaluru to Kai Chala to Kem Cho and Padharo Maro Desh and then Sastriyakaal we tend to see different landscapes different flavors of food, dress and culture which India is known for.

RTH is not just a road trip, it's a story of different states and culture which you go through on this journey.
We ensure you have a lifetime experience like never before.

Starting from Idli Sambar, Mishal Pav, world's tallest Statue of Unity, Fafda, Dhokla, Lake City, Daal Baati Churma, Pink City, Ghewar, Punjab ke Khet-Khalihan, lassi, Chole Kulche, World's greatest Himalayas, High passes and Peaks, Green Valleys, Deserts, Rivers, Waterfalls, tough terrains, Kharudung-La, Pangong Lake, Last Village of India, Kashmir ki waadiyan, War Memorials, LOC, Golden temple, National parks ,Taj Mahal, Vrindavan, Temples, Forts and many more to make the journey most adventurous, unforgettable & breathless.

Day Wise Itinerary

DAY ZERO

- Day Zero has been introduced by Roy Cruiser for the very first time into the Travel Industry with a motive to meet and greet with other participants of that particular expedition much before we start the great journey of lifetime.
- We invite all participants for Lunch a week before and we explain the entire Journey, Convoy Rules, Communication, Route map, Terrains, Challenges, Precautions etc. with presentation to prepare you mentally taking you through a virtual tour of the entire expedition.
- We also keep a Q&A session to answers all our queries.
